ServiceMaster of Hamilton

recognizes the contributions of

Paras Rawal

December 9, 2023 – Since joining ServiceMaster of Hamilton, Paras Rawal has quickly proven to be an integral part of our team. Paras is not just an essential employee for us, he is our EVERYDAY HERO simply being who he is!

As one of our Associates with our customer Amazon, Paras exemplifies excellence on the job! Not only is he loved by his peers and our customer, but Paras also has an innate ability to think quickly on his feet resulting in a job well done each and every time! The benefit? Our client's facility shines, and we shine – all due to Paras's dedication to hard work and a love for what he does!

We are certain that we would not be as successful in what we do without Paras on our team!

*"Thank you, Paras, for your love of cleaning and simply just being you!
You are most certainly our EVERYDAY HERO!"*
